JOIN THE MAY DAY MARCH

Thursday May 1st, 7.30pm, Garden of Rememberance Parnell Sq.
(Organised by the Dublin Council of Trade Unions)

The annual Dublin Council of Trade Unions takes place this Thursday May 1st.

The March this year takes place at a time when two major industrial disputes are going on at Irish Life and among Health Workers in the Eastern Health Board.

The politicians are all celebrating the wonders of the "Celtic Tiger" economy but workers know the Tiger is roaring only for the rich.

Irish Life workers are having their job security and conditions axed while the company makes huge profits and company directors give themselves massive pay rises.

The government claim that they cant afford to pay the health workers but they can give over £7 million to the crook Larry Goodman and fork out millions on a tribunal to whitewash the corruption of Haughey, Lowry and Ben Dunne.

Irish Life and the Eastern Health Board workers, should use the occasion of May Day to demonstrate their anger at the greed and hypocrisy of the rich in this country. The march will also be a chance build solidarity for the two disputes among the wider trade union movement.

Directly after the march the Socialist Workers Party have organised a fundraising gig in aid of the Irish Life workers Hardship fund. As well as raising funds the social will be an important opportunity for the worker to meet with other trade unionists and socialists to discuss how support for their struggle can be built.
